

Life of Owl-Man

Now, this was the true story of the Owl-Man and he really liked his human but nothing else. He also was so sad that he had to leave his mate and he was like I don't want to leave.

Life of Owl- Man

By Marshall Bowles

Once upon a time there was an owl in a nest he wanted to fly but he was too small. He walked out and then he fell 20ft to the ground and he was stuck down on the rainforest floor. There were all kinds of dangerous animals trying to eat the baby owl and there were snakes, big birds, lizards.

When the owl is older. He could fly around and if he wanted to he could fly back to his nest. He also found a friend and his name is Cat-Man. Cat-Man lived across the road from Owl-Man. Owl-Man is hungry and he asked Cat-Man for some food.

One day it was raining and Cat-Man hated water he could stand it. So his old lady Donna started saying “here kitty,kitty,kitty.” Come inside out of the rain so Cat-Man said bye to Owl-Man and started walking to the house. There was a bus coming and as soon as Cat-Man seen the bus it was too late. Owl-Man was still hungury and ate his best friend.

Owl-Man was very sad and so was Donna. But Owl-Man had to get over it. It was hard for the owl. Owl-Man was super mad and so was Donna wondered who did that.

One year later Owl-man was hunting. He saw a snake and flew down there. There were about 40 snakes down on the ground and Owl-Man got spotted and then he flew down and started fighting the boss. The fight took 25 minutes and Owl-man won it was so cool and the Boss was killed.

Kathleen Finnerty

Owl-Man was never for gotten because of that day he killed the evil snake. And he disappeared into the night and he took cover after that and found a human that he could live with. At night Owl-Man flies threw the skies and he goes to his happy little life and it's so peaceful just him. When the mourning comes he flies away to the humans house and he lives inside of the boy. He is at Booth elematary and only some know who Owl-Man really is.

The life of Owl-Man is where owl gets lost in the woods and the he meets an old lady and her cat. The cat becomes Cat-Man and then something happens to Cat-Man. The Owl-Man fights the bad guy wins and then he goes under cover.

Written by: Marshall Bowles

The End

You thought this is done well there was something about the owl that no one knew about this side of the story.

The Owl-Man wasn't really a man he was really a owl and he hated people who didn't like him. He was a grumpy owl who sat down on the branch and whooped all day long. He really hated everyone and everything.

