

Forever Friends

Part 1
"The Struggles"

School.

The one place filled with knowledge. Four kids. Four best friends reunite in the school after summer break had come to an end. Gabrielle Flora Mendoza, a sixteen year old girl with a big, sweet caring heart and a big personality. A young thirteen year old boy, very disoriented at most things he does, but very challenging, competitive, and very smart in very tough situations, Marcus Williams. Camilla Harmony, a 14 year old girl that is very sweet, loving and kind. At last but certainly not least, Rose Tibias, a fifteen year old girl that is very intelligent, loyal, smart, and crazy on the weekends with only with her friends! However, these four friends all have a secret on their inside. They are animals. A wolf, snow leopard, a tiger, and a walrus. Working and writing in big time classes. The bell rings. Everyone goes home. Night approaches.

The night comes up upon the five great friends. Something evil comes. As Camilla is in her bed, she notices something odd. She senses something very very odd in her house. So she gets up to find what the odd thing is and is coming from. She went into all the rooms in her household except for the basement. She walks down the stairs, looks around the corner and sees nothing unusual. Moments later, something stabs her arm. She looks straight at her arm. It was a needle under a black hand. She looks up and sees a person in black cloak with a skeletal mask, and she drops dead asleep.

The next day is frightful. "Ugh... another day of school," says Gabrielle. "Definitely," implies Lena. "Well, we have it all week and every month," says Rose. "Has anyone seen Scarlett lately?" asks Marcus. "She looks half alive," Gabrielle says. "Let's go talk to her," suggests Rose. "Ok, let's do that," says Marcus. So they all go towards Camilla. As they got there, something wasn't right with Camilla. She was pale, aggressive looking, red eyed, and worse. "Hey Camilla," Gabrielle said. "...I...don't...like... traitors...," says Camilla very creepily. "What are you talking about?" Marcus asked. "GO AWAY!!!" Camilla yelled. Scarlet sprang up, stared into their eyes. "Ok, ok, geez. we'll go," Gabrielle said. So they all walked off away from Camilla.

"Dude, something's not right," Gabrielle said. "Ya think?" Rose implied. "Did you guys see the symbol that was on her arm?" Marcus asked. "No," they all replied. "I did, it looked pretty evil looking," Marcus said. "Draw it out," Rose said. "OK," Marcus agreed. "It looked like this," Marcus said showing the picture.

"I know that symbol," Gabrielle said. "And I know who it is and where it came from, let's go," Gabrielle said. "We're gonna fix this," said Gabrielle. So, they all headed to the old creek house on the hillside of the town.

When they all arrived at the creepy looking house, they walked up to the door, knocked and realized that no one was there. "We have to get a glowing leaf," Gabrielle said. "Why?" Marcus asked. "Do you want to help Camilla?" Gabrielle said. "OK, you got a point," Marcus replied.

Moments had passed. "I found it!" Rose exclaimed. "OK, now all we gotta do is to get Camilla to eat the entire leaf," Gabrielle instructed. "That's easy," Marcus said. "OK let's go then," Gabrielle said. They all agreed and headed off straight towards Camilla's house. KNOCK! KNOCK! "Come in, she's upstairs," Camilla's dad said. "Thanks," Gabrielle said. "Yea yea yea," he said. They all ran upstairs, opened the door and jumped on top of Camilla to keep her from attacking or escaping. They all transformed. Except for Gabrielle. As Camilla struggled and struggled to get loose, she suddenly started screaming. Gabrielle then took the leaf and shoved it straight into Camilla's mouth. Everything went quiet and Camilla slowly fell into deep sleep. Moments later she woke up.

"What happened?" Camilla asked. "Long story," Marcus said. "C'mon let's all go play in the woods out in the back," Gabrielle suggested. "OK," they all said. So they all ran outside the back door, transformed and played all night long.

END OF PART 1

PART 2 "FINDING THE ENEMY"

School is still in progress through the hard learning days of spring. Everyone is still very exhausted from the struggle with Camilla. Yawns - Gabrielle is laying in her seat, exhausted. "You good Gabby?" Marcus asks. "Yea i'm fine, just very tired of school, it's making me very sleepy," replies Gabrielle. "Did you guys hear the news this morning?" asked Rose. "No." Replies Gabrielle the others as well shook their head no. "well...there's a guy, black suit, skeletal mask, very suspicious, and very creepy, roaming around town," "So...," says Marcus. "He killed four people," Rose said. "Really?" Marcus implied. "I'm not lying, aren't I?" Rose joked. "Hey guys," Camilla said. "Hey," Gabrielle said. "Umm..remember that guy that made me evil or something like that?" Camilla asked. "Yea we were just talking about him," Marcus replied. "well, He's out roaming around town, killing people and as well, making them all furious, and evil," Camilla said. "Dang," Rose implied. "we need to go and stop him," Camilla instructed. "OK, we'll do it tonight, OK?" Gabrielle asked. "OK," Camilla replied. So they all continued their classes until they waited for nightfall

They waited at home.

When nightfall had arrived they had all decided to sneak up on him on the killer's' hideout. So, in order to do that they had to first locate his scent, but not all of them can do that. Marcus, Camilla, and Gabrielle were the only ones that could locate scents. So as them two were doing so Rose had to wait. "I found it!" Marcus exclaimed. "OK now all we need to do is to follow it, get inside and capture, or kill him, either way works for me," instructed Gabrielle. Hours had passed. They had finally found the hideout. "Let's go," Gabrielle said. So they all ran in. No one was in the building. All of a sudden they were all trapped in a giant cage.

They all frantically shook the cage to escape. I finally broke. They looked around and heard he was coming. The doors flew open and he was there with his new evil friends. "GET HIM!" Gabrielle growled. They all fought. They fought and fought and fought. Moments had passed. He was the only one standing. So they ate him, and everyone was OK. They all played and played in peace together. Happily.
